May Help You if Lungs Are Affected

Proper diet, fresh air and temperate habits are beneficial to persons suffering from Lung Troubie; but in a great many instances reports show that the addition of a medicine for this affection has materially helped in bringing about recovery. For more than afteren years Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Ling Troubles, has accomplished good results. Read what it did in this case:

Madison Lake, Minn.

"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, March, 1909, and September, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs which confined me several weeks, each time to my hed. My doctor advised me to go West. In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alterative, I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I am entirely well, have improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. She had been acquainted with Vannah a year prior to the shooting and he and her husband were on friendly terms until the former accused the latter of stealing 25 bottles of his whiskey. She had heard a conversation between them in which Mr. Hardy said he could not pos-sibly have stolen the whiskey because he bad no keys with which to enter the treatment will be.

The witness testified that she and her husband had supper at their camp at 5:30 o'clock on the day of the shooting. After she had attended to her household duties she lay on the bed beside her husband.

"I heard the clock strike six," she said, "and for half an hour we lay on the bed talking, when I heard a voice say: 'Where is Ed Hardy? He is the man I'm looking for.' I recognized Vannah peering through the window as he began firing. I heard five shots. I was shot three times and my husband twice. The shots came in quick succession. I asked him to get me a drink of water and he said: 'I can't; I've been shot!' Soon afterward I heard a knock at the door and supposing it was Vannah I said: Don't shoot any more, Mr. Vannah, we are both dying now."

"The person at the door said: This is not Vannah, this is a chum." I then recognized the voice of Mr. Sias, who has a camp nearby. I said to him: 'For God's sake, come in here, we are both
